All about Animals

Pierre the Penguin

In Pierre the Penguin, Pam observes a problem. Pierre isn't growing any feathers! She then brainstorms ways she can help Pierre. She tries a heater, and medicine. When those didn't work, she doesn't give up. She continues to observe the environment around her until she makes a connection between her dog and Pierre. She comes up with a plan to help Pierre. Pam and her friend work together to help Pierre.

In pairs, observe the pictures below. As a team, complete the missing boxes by drawing pictures. If you are unsure of where an animal lives or what they eat, use a book to research the animal. When you have finished, compare your answers with another group.
